MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the Court upon the motion of plaintiff (registration no. 18326), an inmate at St. Louis City Justice Center, for leave to commence this action without payment of the required filing fee [Doc. #2]. For the reasons stated below, the Court finds that plaintiff does not have sufficient funds to pay the entire filing fee and will assess an initial partial filing fee of $18.20. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1). Furthermore, after reviewing the complaint, the Court will order the Clerk to issue process or cause process to be issued on the complaint.

28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1)

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1), a prisoner bringing a civil action in forma pauperis is required to pay the full amount of the filing fee. If the prisoner has insufficient funds in his or her prison account to pay the entire fee, the Court must assess and, when funds exist, collect an initial partial filing fee of 20 percent of the greater of (1) the average monthly deposits in the prisoner's account, or (2) the average monthly balance in the prisoner's account for the prior six-month period. After payment of the initial partial filing fee, the prisoner is required to make monthly payments of 20 percent of the preceding month's income credited to the prisoner's account. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2). The agency having custody of the prisoner will forward these monthly payments to the Clerk of Court each time the amount in the prisoner's account exceeds $10, until the filing fee is fully paid. Id.

Plaintiff has submitted an affidavit and a certified copy of his prison account statement for the six-month period immediately preceding the submission of his complaint. A review of plaintiff's account indicates an average monthly deposit of $91.00, and an average monthly balance of $5.52. Plaintiff has insufficient funds to pay the entire filing fee. Accordingly, the Court will assess an initial partial filing fee of $18.20, which is 20 percent of plaintiff's average monthly deposit.

28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B), the Court may dismiss a complaint filed in forma pauperis if the action is frivolous, malicious, fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, or seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief. An action is frivolous if "it lacks an arguable basis in either law or in fact." Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 328 (1989). An action fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted if it does not plead “enough facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 127 S. Ct. 1955, 1974 (2007).

In reviewing a pro se complaint under § 1915(e)(2)(B), the Court must give the complaint the benefit of a liberal construction. Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520 (1972). The Court must also weigh all factual allegations in favor of the plaintiff, unless the facts alleged are clearly baseless. Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25, 32-33 (1992); Scheuer v. Rhodes, 416 U.S. 232, 236 (1974).

The Complaint

Plaintiff brings this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 alleging violations of his civil rights. Named as defendants are Susan Singer (doctor, Correctional Medical Services); Charles Bryson (Director, St. Louis Division of Corrections); Gene Stubblefield (Commissioner, Division of Corrections); and Lenard Edwards (Asst. Commissioner, Division of Corrections).

Specifically, plaintiff complains that Susan Singer has been deliberately indifferent to his serious medical needs, including: Rheumatoid Arthritis; Osteoarthritis; GERD; Bipolar Disorder; and “Leaky Valve” Syndrome. Plaintiff complains that despite entering the St. Louis City Justice Center with the aforementioned diagnoses and certain prescribed medications, Dr. Singer has refused to provide him with his prescribed medications and instead, provided him with little or no treatment, or treatment that has failed to alleviate his symptoms.

Reviewing plaintiff's complaint liberally, it appears that plaintiff is asserting that the defendants in charge of the St. Louis Division of Corrections have a policy or custom of allowing the St. Louis City Justice Center to remain unsanitary, such that plaintiff contracted the disease of scabies during his confinement there. Plaintiff states that he complained to defendants about the unsanitary conditions, but that they refused to remedy the situation.

At this time, it appears that plaintiff has alleged enough to state a claim for unconstitutional prison conditions, in addition to a claim of deliberate indifference to his serious medical needs. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915. As such, the Court will order the Clerk of Court to issue process or cause process to be issued on defendants.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that plaintiff's motion to proceed in forma pauperis [Doc. #2] is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the plaintiff shall pay an initial filing fee of $18.20 within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. Plaintiff is instructed to make his remittance payable to "Clerk, United States District Court," and to include upon it: (1) his name; (2) his prison registration number; (3) the case number; and (4) that the remittance is for an original proceeding.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if plaintiff fails to pay the initial partial filing fee within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, then this case will be dismissed without prejudice.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk shall issue process or cause process to issue upon the complaint. The Clerk shall serve defendant Singer through the waiver of service agreement with Correctional Medical Services. Defendants Bryson, Stubblefield and Edwards, alleged members of the St. Louis City Division of Corrections, shall be served through the waiver of service agreement maintained with the St. Louis City Counselor's Office.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(g)(2), defendants shall reply to plaintiff's claims within the time provided by the applicable provisions of Rule 12(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this case is assigned to Track 5B: Prisoner Standard.

Dated this 10th day of August, 2011.
